DEDICATION

Mrs. Carmen O'Rourke

It is with great pleasure that we dedicate this year's yearbook to Mrs. Carmen O'Rourke. Mrs. O'Rourke has been a member of the RMHS staff for the last 7 years. At present, she works as the Administrative Secretary to Mr. Bakr. In this position she loves being able to help students, faculty, and staff. Her favorite part of the job is working with people and acting as RMHS's resident motherly figure.

Working at RMHS goes far beyond the walls of the school for Mrs. O'Rourke as she and her husband have been members of Reading's community for about 40 years. Her daughter graduated from Reading High and her son was a student in the Reading Public Schools up until eighth grade. For Mrs. O'Rourke, being a part of the RMHS community feels like home.

Prior to her current position, Mrs. O'Rourke worked at the State House where she enjoyed working with the constituency. In this position she found her love for working with and being around people. Mrs. O'Rourke also worked as a preschool teacher at the Burbank YMCA for many years.

Thank you so much, Mrs. O'Rourke, for your countless hours of dedicated work on behalf of the RMHS students and staff. Your work does not go unnoticed or unappreciated!

LETTER FROM THE EDITORS

Dear Class of 2018,

At the conclusion of our time at Reading Memorial High School, we find our position bittersweet. Knowing that we have been well-prepared for future endeavors, there is great excitement. Yet at the same time, we leave behind a stage that has been truly formative. Deep relationships have been forged and strengthened, while lessons have been taught that will last a life time. We attempt to express our deepest gratitude to those who have devoted these years to preparing us for the future.

The pages to follow are dotted with memories from our high school experience. It is our sincere hope that this book will be a tool for you to look fondly back on these moments, even far into the future.

We extend great thanks to all who contributed to the production of this book. Mrs. Lynch-DiSorbo and Mr. Smith have provided exceptional guidance throughout this process. We can not thank you enough. To Ms. Curley, Ms. Donahue, the staff, the School Administration, and the Athletics Department, your assistance does not go unnoticed or unappreciated.

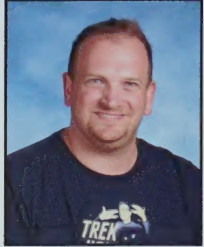

With fondest memories,

Your Yearbook Editors

Kathleen Walsh, Molly Keane, and Dianna Gagnon

HIGH FIVES

The High Fives are a tradition that was started by Mr. Michael Scarpitto during his time at RMHS as Assistant Principal. It aims to recognize the accomplishments of the graduating class. Every Friday two students are selected based on their accomplishments in service, leadership, academics, and involvement in the RMHS community. A bio is read over the morning announcements about each student, and they are given high fives by students and staff as part of the celebration of their achievements.

Congratulations on the completion of yet another chapter of your life. You should be proud of your accomplishments! As you begin a new chapter, take the time to reflect on where you have been and where you are headed ...

Behind you are your memories. Here are but a few to help you remember the others ...

Cotton Mill, Cape Cod Hospital, Hyannis, New Orleans, Southbridge, Admirals Hill, Chelsea, Tooth Fairy, Santa Claus, Fox and the Hound, Snow White, Chuck E Cheese's, Mystic Place, Medford, McGlynn Elementary, Medford Youth Soccer, YMCA, Friendly's, The Little Mermaid, London, Charlestown, East Boston, Harry Potter, Archstone, Reading, Summer Ave, drums, Joshua Eaton, Celtics, RUSC, High School Musical, guitar, braces, iPhone, Irvine, Stonegate Elementary, She's the Man, Pacific Dance, chicken fingers, Disneyland, Seattle, Las Vegas, Grand Canyon, Summer Ave, Parker Middle School, Zinga, Washington, D.C., Taylor Swift, Dandi-Lyons, Peabody, Stoneham, Vogelsinger Soccer Academy, New England Summer Dance Camp, Boston, RMHS, Jacksonville, Carnival, Mexico, steak, soccer, track, New York City, EXPLO, Bahamas, internship, Bermuda, Andreas, driver's license, Hall Memorial Pool, Hungary, Serbia, Bulgaria, Romania, Kent State, Coastal Carolina, West Virginia, Roanoke, Arizona State, Westfield, Marymount, Pace, Quinnipiac, St. John's, High Point, Bryant, East Carolina, ... and UNH!

Before you are choices; memories not yet made. Here is some advice to consider ...

Embrace knowledge: the more you learn the more you have the advantage. Work hard: there is little point to doing anything half-heartedly. Be patient: nothing worthwhile arrives without a wait. Measure your success in units of happiness: the more you smile the more you are living well. Treat your body like a temple: you have but one, so nourish it. Integrity: do what is right, even when no one will know. Assert yourself: don't be an extra in your own play. Be generous: share what you have earned with others who have need. Lead: never be afraid to take your own position. Be persistent: consider it a blessing that from failure blossoms success. Strive to be resilient: remember that every prior time you thought you couldn't go on, you did. Hope: each night is followed by a new morning, without fail. Regulate anger, sadness, pain and despair: they are normal emotions, but they are to be used sparingly. Cherish your friendships: surround yourself with those who love you for who you are. Forgive: observe and then disregard the shortcomings of those around you, then focus on their strengths so you can learn from every experience. Hold high standards for your love interests: settle for no one less than a person who treats you better than you would want your own child treated. Be confident: you are smarter, braver and more resourceful than you think. Breathe: if you are breathing, you are alive, and there is hope.

Around you is your family, who wish you nothing but happiness, peace and prosperity.

With love and advice and successes and failures to guide you, embrace your excitement and set aside your trepidation. It is time to begin your next act. Your audience was mesmerized by your first, so make the most of your opportunities and inspire us again. And remember ...

Within you lies all that you will ever need.

Maddie White

Congratulations Maddie Rose. We are so proud of you!
